

Delhi court issues notices to Sterling Biotech owners in ₹8,100-cr loan fraud case

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 26

A DELHI COURT Friday sought response from Sterling Biotech promoters following an Enforcement Directorate's plea to declare them fugitive economic offenders in connection with a ₹8,100-crore bank fraud case. Additional Sessions Judge Satish Kumar Arora issued the notices to the owners of the Gujarat-based pharmaceutical firm — Nitin Sandesara, Chetan Sandesara, Dipti Sandesara, Hitesh Patel. The plea has been filed by the agency under various sections of the Fugitive Economic Offenders Act, 2018, for declaration of the accused as offenders and for confiscation of properties which are either in their names or they have interest in the properties as beneficial owners. ED's special public prosecutor Nitesh Rana said the total amount involved in the money laundering, which "is nothing but proceeds of crime" in the matter has been quantified as ₹8,100 crore approximately from the probe conducted so far. The ED told the court that the accused persons have left the country under suspicious circumstances and evaded the process of law to face criminal prosecution. "Despite the instant developments being well in their knowledge, they have chosen to deliberately not to return to the country and submit to the jurisdiction of the court. They are shifting countries to escape the clutches of the law." It also told the court that it is suspected that the accused at present may be residing in Nigeria, the US or UAE because they have extensive business interests in these countries. "Even though the accused no 1 to 4 (Nitin, Chetan, Dipti and Hitesh) had sufficient funds and resources to avoid declaration of bank loans as frauds subsequent to Non-Performing Assets, they, in active connivance with each other and other persons laundered the funds for their personal advantage and use through a complex web of shell/benami firms controlled and managed by them through dummy/paper directors who were their employees and bought certain properties.

It said the probe has revealed that 249 firms have been incorporated in the country by promoters of Sterling Biotech, of which 200 were found to be 'benami' entities used to siphon off loan obtained from banks.
